Home-Based Business (Major) Conditional Use (DCU “B”) Application

Effective January 1, 2020

What is a Home-Based Business?
The Zoning By-law regulates Home-Based Businesses by ensuring the character of a residential area is not impacted by noise, traffic or other nuisances associated with a commercial enterprise.

A Home-Based Business may be a full-time, part-time or even an occasional venture. Generally, if your business mail comes to your home and or administrative duties are conducted from your home, you require a Home-Based Business Permit. Many types of Home-Based Businesses such as office facilities are permitted under the Zoning By-law with the issuance of a Home-Based Business Permit prior to establishing.

_A Home-Based Business that provides a personal service on the premises_ such as a beauty salon, pet grooming or repair service and the like, _require Conditional Use (DCU) approval_ from the Director of Planning, Property and Development, in addition to the Home-Based Business Permit _prior to establishing it._

What is a Conditional Use?
_A Conditional Use_ means a building or land that may be unique in its characteristics or operation, which could have an impact on adjoining properties. In accordance with the City of Winnipeg Charter, a Conditional Use is a use of land listed as "Conditional" within the use table of a zoning district.

What are the Rules Governing Conditional Uses?
To approve a conditional use, the decision maker is required to conclude the criteria listed below are met. When you submit your application, you should include a written explanation on how you think each criterion is met. This is your chance to make your case. By addressing these thoroughly, you can reduce the possibility of an important factor being overlooked.

A conditional use application may be approved as is or approved subject to conditions provided that the conditional use requested is consistent with the following criteria as prescribed under the _City of Winnipeg Charter Act:_

(a) consistent with Plan Winnipeg and any applicable secondary plan;
(b) does not create a substantial adverse effect on the amenities, use, safety and convenience of the adjoining property and adjacent area, including an area separated from the property by a street or waterway;
(c) is the minimum modification of a zoning by-law required to relieve the injurious effect of the zoning by-law on the applicant’s property:
(d) is compatible with the area in which the property to be affected is situated.

The decision maker may place conditions upon a conditional use approval, which are deemed necessary to ensure these criteria are met. The decision and any conditions will be posted on the public notice. _Once the conditional use has been publicly posted and/or the decision maker has made a decision on the conditional use, please note that the application fees cannot be refunded._
APPLICATION APPEALED (Appeal by others)

A. The applicant shall be notified by registered mail should the decision be appealed. Those in opposition to the application may appeal the decision by submitting a written notice of appeal within 14 days of issuance of the conditional use order. The property is posted for a second period of fourteen (14) days for a hearing of the Appeal Committee at City Hall, 510 Main Street. If the APPEAL IS REJECTED, the decision on the original order is confirmed. If the APPEAL IS GRANTED, the original conditional use order is REJECTED and the applicant cannot re-apply for the same conditional use within one (1) year from the date of the order.

APPLICATION REJECTED (Appeal by applicant)

B. The applicant shall be notified by registered mail if the conditional use application has been REJECTED. The applicant may appeal the order by submitting a written notice of appeal within 14 days of issuance of the conditional use order. The property is posted for a period of fourteen (14 days) for a hearing of the Appeal Committee at City Hall, 510 Main Street. If the applicant’s APPEAL IS GRANTED, an appeal order is issued and the applicant can apply for a Building permit. If the applicant’s APPEAL IS REJECTED, the original conditional use order rejecting the application is confirmed. The applicant must wait for one year from the date of the order to apply for the same conditional use.
